

Falck Nutech

Our Price Match Pledge!

At Falck Nutech UK we appreciate and understand that cost and quality of training are important. In order to recognise our commitment to customer service, we have launched our price match pledge!

Our dedication to offering cost-effective quality training to our clients means that if you find the same training cheaper elsewhere, we will match the price for you.

We are also happy to add that making such reductions will not impact on our usual practice of including certification fees in any such figures we quote.

This assurance applies to both corporate clients and self-sponsored delegates.

Courses include: BOSIET, FOET, Mutually-Recognised courses, Banksman Slinger (Stage 1), Introduction to Rigging & Lifting, Combined Slings, Rigging & Lifting, STCW Basic & Advanced Firefighting, HLO - please ask for additional courses.

Comparable service conditions include factors such as:

- Delivery charges and timescales.
- Course duration and accrediting body (such as OPITO, STCW etc.)
 - Price differences will not be valid retrospectively.
- Adequate proof of quotation from other provider must be given within 24 hours of booking and prior to training commencement. We will normally ask for full details of the product, the competitor and their prices, so please do check that you have this information to hand before you begin to complete the form.
 - We also cannot match competitors who are in administration or closing down.
 - Offer not applicable for clients who are on previously agreed framework agreements.
 - The competitor is an operational and registered business in the UK.
 - We reserve the right to withdraw this offer at any time.
